Comm. Amdt. _____

by deleting the preamble of the bill in its entirety and by substituting instead the following language:

WHEREAS, emergency vehicles are often on critical missions and driven at high rates of speed; and

WHEREAS, many persons driving such vehicles may lack adequate or comprehensive training and may be subject to making dangerous errors; and

WHEREAS, although emergency vehicles are designed and equipped to save lives and property, they may themselves be the cause of loss of life and of property; now, therefore,

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Vanessa K. Free Emergency Services Training Act of 2005".

SECTION 2.

(a) It is the intent of the general assembly that each person who drives an emergency vehicle in its official capacity shall be adequately trained to drive such emergency vehicle. Documentation by the agency providing training shall include:

(1) Training in the operation of the vehicle in emergency and non-emergency situations;

(2) A review of all applicable laws pertaining to emergency vehicles; and

(3) Training to respond to actions of non-emergency vehicles.

Each emergency vehicle driver shall take not less than two (2) hours of training annually, and each emergency vehicle driver shall take and pass a comprehensive examination pertaining to subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) every year.

(b) A driver of an emergency vehicle who is trained pursuant to this section and who is a government employee under §29-20-107 shall be subject to the same limitations on liability contained in the provisions of the Tennessee Government Tort Liability Act, compiled in title 29, chapter 20.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect January 1, 2006, the public welfare requiring it.
